LOUISIANA

Let me live in Louisiana, where the lazy bayous flow
And the haze of Indian summer veils the autumn's vivid glow;
Land of silhouettes and shadows, land of oak, and cypress trees,
With their mossy festoons swaying in a lang'rous Southern breeze.

There is magic in the forests that were planted here by God,
Where a canopy of blue is stretched above the fertile sod;
Here it is the flow'ring dogwoods lift their arms of snowy white
And the rosy little rosebuds blossom gaily overnight.

Land of love and oleander, land of goldenrod and dreams,
Land of fairy water lilies floating down the quiet streams;
Spreading fields of corn and cotton, waving fields of sugar cane
Frame the whitewashed picturesqueness of the cabins in a lane.

Let me revel in the glory of a Louisiana moon
While I listen to the music of a darky's mournful croon;
For the spell of romance hovers o'er this land of pastel skies,
And the spirit of Acadia gleams in dusky Creole eyes.

Dedication

MR. O. M. HELVESTON
Principal

With humble pride and grateful hearts, we dedicate our yearbook this year to our principal, Mr. O. M. Helveston . . . because he dares to do and to dream in a time when too many have lost their vision . . . and because the shining strength of his faith in those deeds and dreams makes them so real to us.

To the students of BRHS and especially to the Seniors, our Assistant Principal, Mr. Lacy E. Davis, has been an inspiration. He performed his duties in a capable, cheerful, and efficient manner, always urging us on to greater heights in scholastic and extra-curricular activities. By praising us, by defending us, and correcting when we were wrong, Mr. Davis merits the respect of the whole student body.

MR. LACY E. DAVIS, Assistant Principal

Special Recognition to:

MISS FRANCES DUNBAR

Miss Frances Dunbar, well-loved Science teacher at Baton Rouge High School, is retiring after more than 40 years of faithful, efficient service. She will ever be remembered for the untiring help she gave to her students, even after school hours; for her work on the books in the office; and last but not least, as a true friend to all. May she have a happy life in her retirement and may she think of us sometimes as we will all keep a cherished place for her in our memories.

WAYNE MILLER
Art Editor

The success of this book depends largely upon the talent and kindness of Wayne Miller, who, even though he was not a regular member of the Staff, took it upon himself to do all the art work, so that we would have a good book. Thanks so much, Wayne. We really appreciate all you have done.

ALMA MATER

For Baton Rouge High
We raise our cry
For the School we all adore;
We'll lift our standards high
Till known from shore to shore;
Then we'll fight, fight, fight
With all our might
Till victory's in sight
Then we'll raise our Banner high
For dear old Baton Rouge High.

Class History

HEAR YE! HEAR YE!

THE KING'S PROCLAMATION

All citizens of B.R.H.S. think back to the past years and remember . . .

Once in the little village of B.R.H.S., there lived a King Helveston and his proud, happy subjects. They all had reason to be proud since they had won much recognition in various things. The royal troupe "THESPIANS" did a fine job of presenting many dramas and comedies in the Bulldog Theatre. Often the citizens honored the King's famed forces, better known as the Mighty Bulldogs, by giving banquets and balls. Many times these men had a brave fight but still brought the King and the citizens victory and glory. They proved how great they were when one of their own teammates was chosen All-American. There were also organizations which helped and presented the town with activities. The Mu Sigma carnivals, Twirp Week, the Junior-Senior proms, and the beauty pageants. All highlighted the citizens' lives. The royal musicians along with the marching army, better known as Band and Boosters, also entertained the subjects on various occasions. The ladies of the township joined the F.H.A., where they spent many happy hours with sewing bees, conversation exchange and recipes. The citizens parliament is responsible for improvements in the village. They founded the recreation center, called Rumpus Room. They also gave us our honored mascot, "Butch."

Having looked back on this village and its activities, we hereby proclaim that this class of '57 is the best in the kingdom of Baton Rouge High in Louisiana.

Class Prophecy

Once upon a moonbeam
A'twinkling with dew
With a look into the future
. . . To 1982

As drifting through the years
on a cloud of snowy white
We see old BR patrons
Who have risen to great heights.

Take Richard Caldwell for instance,
We always said he'd gain;
Well, he's now a well-known architect,
Married to Helaine.

As an author, Alicia Bennett, just won the Pulitzer Prize,
And on the stage, Joan Anderson
To great fame did rise.

Out of the jungle, dark and dim,
Come back from Africa,
Clark, "Jamie" and Jim.

As aviators, flying with skill,
Berry Seal and Larry Sleeth
Chose this profession of their own accord and will.

Now in the professional world of sports
We have many names, not few;
Mixon, Hill and Kozan
All-American, Bo Strange, too

Hark! Nationally-known playboys are coming into sight
In tux, ties, and tails
It's Bill Reed, Jim Starnes and George White.

In their hunting boots without any frill,
International Game Wardens
Kenny, Tex Ritter, and Will.

Typing and taking shorthand efficiently is Elva
Noy, Sarah Little, Naomi, and Auve
How fortunate we are to have such
Such good secretaries as they.

The big four on the coaching staff at BRHS
Are Pat, Slim, Billy, and Fred
And to victory the team they have lead
These coaches, to us, are the best.

Wayne Miller is a painter
And a good sculptor too;
He'll be an "old master"
When Collier gets through.

Into the woods, dark and deep
John Barry, Tommy Newsham, and Smokey creep
With their rifles to get a good shot
These boys are the bravest game hunters of the lot.

Outstanding in sports are some of our girls
Known for their victories all over the world
We'd like to name just a few
Elsie, Edwina, and Kathleen, too.

Foreign ambassadors to faraway lands
Smiling at babies and shaking hands
These three girls, Sylvia, Sally, and Joyce,
Are spreading the sound of the U.S. Freedom voice.

The famous golf pros of the day
John Melton and Sue Jones hail from this way
Then whiz the ball right off the tee
A hole in one is what it will be.

Introducing the "Singing Larks"
Composed of Editha, Beth, and Mary Len
Their Musical quality is such a hit
You'll come to hear them again and again.

Billie, Sally, Judy, and Kaye
Have opened businesses and are on their way
To reach great heights is their aim
In the WACs, potato-peeling is no game.

Krispin, Betty Ruth, Claudia, and Helen Moreau
Have taken the tests and gotten their degrees
The outstanding homemakers of tomorrow
Will assist Betty Crocker in her recipes.

Joe Ann, Earl, and Mary H. are having a ball
As they give an audition
at Carnegie Hall.

"Hopalong" Odom and "Daffy" McNeill
The actors we used to know
Are teaming up to make a hit
Down in ole Mexico.

Tops in the musical field,
Is this world renown singing quartet
Carolyn, Glancie, Judy, and Joyce

Amelia, Leonard, Byrd, and Carruth
have completed their S2-e2-K4-re-3 T plan
They're leaving soon to see the moon
And on the ole Crescent will land.

At the military wedding of Carolyn Humphrey
Led by Janet, you will find these three,
Susan, Juantia, and Eva Mae
This Colossal Drum Corps is the peppiest today.

"Phil Pusher" Li Rocchi is at it again
She's cured nine patients; only had ten
Aided by Pat, Lucie and Sue
To the profession, they're all loyal and true.

Teaching the Bulldog of today
Are the past members of F.T.A.
Anne, Diane, Sherrill, and Elsie
These kids won't drive us crazy, you'll see.

Diane, Nita and Shirley P., as we see
Are swimming at Cypress Gardens—as they wished to be
Along with this show is a spectacular ballet
Georgene, Stella, Dian—are at the top today.

B. Allen, Donna Maddox, "Beanie" Beckham
and Gay
Are happy loving housewives in each and every way.

So it is with Celia, Jane, and Janice Pate
Since these three left the altar
Happiness has been their fate.

Engineer Donald has gained his fame
And has Eleanor Brewer to share his name;
Artist Rex Woodham with his model wife, Evelyn
And all are living in their own little heaven.

Woodfin's car sales in India
Have reached a great height
Salesmen, Jimmy, Buddy, and Andy
Made the natives see the light.

Now running a Commercial Art School
As we can see
Are Kitty Roy, Julie Sholars and
Gwen Fredricks—all three.

Richard, Bruno, John and Lloyd
The boys we used to know
Are millionaires and movie stars

The modeling school run by
Barbara, Carroll, and Holley D.;
Is getting rough competition from
Patsy, Ann R., and Carolyn E.

Buddy and King Larguier
have a Sports Shop so it's said;
And as champion "fisherman"
It's ole' cool Ned.

Watching the parade as it goes by
We see Mary Jo and Billie still stepping high
And in the band that marches along
We find Jerry Tyler and Kenny Webb playing a song.

Pat Planchard whose smile was so sweet
Models for Vogue and ever looks neat.
Lynne Stander, with such pretty hair
Also makes a charming model, blonde and fair.

John Bloodwell, Will Naylor and Nolan Thomas
All three have seats in the Senate;
And they keep striving constantly
To better our state and the people in it.

Evelyn, Beverly, Loretta, and Volean
Are all living around the corner
From important publishers in the literary field
Who seek their work with fiery zeal.

To guide others in the art of cooking and sewing
The voice of these gals over TV are flowing
Marjorie S., Effie Joe, Shirley L., and Helen
Bring to the homemaker all that's worth telling.

Wall Street beckoned and they are there
Financial wizards at whom all stare
Penny, Wiese, Martin, and Karns
Believe it or not, they haven't a care.

True to the rules they mastered here
They entered the Olympics without any fear
Chambers, Carter, and the two Terrell boys
Brought trophies home that filled us with joy.

Alas the trip is over
Our journey has to close
Will these predictions come true
Only one person knows.

So take these moonbeams
And wish upon a star
That by 1982
We'll all have gone this far.

BRHS VS Holy Cross

The success of the Bulldogs was momentarily halted by the Holy Cross Tigers, whose rushing was so effective that the BRHS players were unable to get the ball in the air. The opposing team's two touchdowns were scored within two minutes of the second half. The Bulldogs drove inside the Tigers' twenty-five yard line five times but failed to score.

BRHS VS New Iberia

The Bulldogs began the 1956 season with a 21-0 victory over the New Iberia Yellow Jackets. Aided by excellent blocking, Wendell Harris was able to score the first touchdown of the season on an 85-yard run. The Bulldogs' second downfield march resulted in a TD by Kozan. In the last period Wendell Harris broke away for 65 yards and then he kicked the extra point for the decisive victory over the Yellow Jackets.

BRHS VS Terrebonne

The Terrebonne Tigers fought vigorously against the Bulldogs but were unprepared to cope with the ingenious tactics and spectacular strength of the Baton Rougeans. The extraordinary performance of our backs and linemen brought cheers from the crowd and a 26-14 victory to the team. Webb Taylor and the rest of the linemen made it possible for each of the first-string backs to cross the goal at least once.

BRHS VS Jesuit

The Jesuit Blue Jays were no match for the Bulldogs, who clipped the Jay's wings by a .34-0 victory. By scoring 22 points, W. Harris brought his total to 51 points, the highest in the State. Wayne Kozan and Joe Harris also made TD's in the game. Kozan scored on a 80-yard run from a punt return. Our substitutes proved themselves worthy in the last quarter of the game.

BRHS VS Catholic High

The Bruins returned to their den bruised and battered following their encounter with the vicious Bulldogs. Each of the BRHS backs proved his ability by scoring in the tilt. The Bears, able to gain very few yards because of splendid Bulldog blocking, succeeded only once in carrying the pigskin across the goal. The Bulldogs won by a score of 46-6.

BRHS VS Bogalusa

A fine defensive showing was made by both teams in this game; however, the Bulldogs again proved themselves superior by felling the Lumberjacks by a score of 14-0. Despite a muddy field and stiff defense, Joe Harris succeeded in scoring twice, assuring the Bulldogs another victory.

BRHS VS Byrd High

The Byrd game was a victory for the Bulldog line, which prevented the Yellow Jackets from scoring. The Bulldogs marched 90 yards the first time they gained possession of the ball, with Wendell Harris adding to his high point total by getting the TD on a four-yard end run. He also succeeded in making the conversion. The game ended with a score of 7-0 in favor of the Bulldogs.

BRHS VS Fair Park

A thrilling game was played by the Bulldogs against the widely acclaimed Fair Park team. During the first half, the Indians had almost complete control of the ball; the half ended with Fair Park leading 7-0. Harris remained in the spotlight, making two touchdowns. When the final gun sounded, the Bulldogs were leading by a score of 14-7.

BRHS VS Istrouma (First Game)

On the first meeting of the city rivals, the Bulldogs ran into a young, fired-up Istrouma eleven. The game was played on a cold night and fumbles were the highlight of the game. Neither team could control the ball long enough for a drive as both defensive squads turned in very brilliant performances. The game ended in a tie, 0-0.

BRHS VS Sulphur

The Bulldogs were again superior in their game against the Sulphur Tors, beating them 34-6. Wendell Harris scored three times. Joe Harris and Wayne Kozan were both instrumental in scoring. Our boys played a magnificent game, holding the "Terrible Tors" to a gentle breeze, letting them blow only 6 points against the powerful Bulldogs.

We've finally finished (don't know how!)
This Fricassee we bring to you,
We hope that you will like it too.
We've worked real hard; we've done our best,
Now we shall take a well-earned rest.

We've tried to add what you'd like to see,
Snapshots, artwork, golly, gee!
And so we hope that you've enjoyed
The fruit of talents we've employed.
But that's enough, not one more peep,
We're on our way back home to sleep!
